

PRODUCERS OF RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES REPRESENTED AS ORGANIC

Records: (Records must be maintained for three years for producers from the date of sale. If not kept on the premises, must be made available for inspection within 72 hours of request).

Quantity harvested from each field or management unit and date. Size of the field or management unit.

Name, addresses, and registration numbers of all handlers, processors, or retailers.
Quantity and date of each sale.

If the property is represented as certified, must have written verification of this.

Labeling:

Raw agricultural products must be properly labeled.

Substances:

All substances applied to the each field or management unit. Quantity and the date of each application to each field or management unit for the previous three years. All substances shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source.

Commingling:

Organic produce should be properly libeled and segregated from convention produce.